These interviews are the recollections of the person interviewed. The information within them has not been verified by historical research. These interviews provide an invaluable record of an individual's involvement in the mining industry in the Ipswich/West Moreton district.

The Willis L. Haenke Historical Foundation would like to emphasise the content of the interviews is the personal recollection and comments of the interviewees, the Historian interviewer and any other parties involved with the interview and are not necessarily the opinion of the Willis L. Haenke Historical Foundation.

The following people have been interviewed to date:
